- What do you require to set up your offices? Go to our website www.sanaps.org.za.

- Attached (Annexure A) is a letter from one of our colleagues who was in dire problems and whom we have successfully assisted. Let the letter speak for itself.
- Regular newsletters: Go to our website, click on the reports tab and see for yourself the kind of support we offer. You will not get this level of support anywhere else.

2. Training:

One Picture is worth a 1 000 words.

This training support continues on a daily basis from colleagues who require guidance and assistance, via sms's, e- mails and calls. We will guide you and train your staff to the highest level maximising your income and minimising your risks.

We intend to train nationally over the next few months in your province. Notices will be forwarded shortly please be on the lookout.

Computers and Printers Donations to our less fortunate colleagues:

Serving Justice

Over the years SANAPS has donated over 30 new computers and printers to our less fortunate colleagues as part of our support and empowerment programme.

International Recognition: Union Internationale des Huissiers de Justice (UIHJ)

SANAPS is the only association recognised by the UIHJ which in turn is fully recognised by the United Nations Organisations and by the International World Court based in The Hague in Holland.

But all of the above may not impress you.

However consider the following:

You are newly appointed. Your deputies are not serving processes timeously, your staff is not coping with returns, your processes are disappearing, your staff is deliberately or negligently sabotaging your success, the attorneys are fed up and laying complaints against you at the South African Board for Sheriffs, your overheads are spiralling out of control, attorneys are refusing to pay your accounts because of poor service, and you find yourself at a total loss as to what to do.

These are actual scenarios which previous newly appointed colleagues like yourself have already experienced. What are you to do?

Don't panic! We are here to assist before you find yourself entangled in this mess.
